Improvised Drama Competition ('SO-AU!) by the Native-speaking English Teacher (NET) Section of the Education Bureau.

In 2016, the English Drama Team went on a remarkable venture when it joined an oral history theatre show called 'Nostalgic Memories of Hung Hom', which was staged by the Chung Ying Theatre Company and senior citizens from SKH Holy Carpenter Church Elderly Community Centre.

In 2019, we accepted an invitation from the NET Section to present at the 'SO-AU!' Briefing Session. Three S4 students and their advisor shared how they were enriched by this drama training and the many benefits of collaboration with other students.

In 2020, to further explore the opportunities of using drama skills, we took part in the 12th Radio Drama Competition sponsored by the Standing Committee on Language Education and Research. With their creative storyline and outstanding performance, the S2 students won the 'Finalist Award' and the 'Most Popular Performance Award'.
